

INFORMATION SYSTEMS COMMITTEE

DUTIES AND PURPOSE

The Information Systems Committee duties and purpose are:

Maintain an information system that is useful to officers, committees, and other interested parties. This includes, but is not limited to maintaining current addresses and making labels available as required.

Respond to member requirements and/or suggestions for computer/information services.

This Page Intentionally Blank